

Handout #13

2:6-8

Indicative mood of the verb = mood of fact

Imperative mood of the verb = mood of command

Pick out verb in v. 6 which is in the indicative mood: _____

Pick out verb in v. 6 which is in the imperative mood: _____

NB: literal sequence of Paul's Greek. "you received Christ the Lord in him walk"

What connects the two verbal moods?

Inseparable conjunction between indicative fact of being _____ and concomitant/consequent moral imperative of acting _____.

Cf. 3:3— ?indicative = _____

union = _____

3:8— ?imperative = _____

union = _____

_____ establishes the indicative fact and _____ enables the imperative act.

Without the indicative fact →

Without the imperative act →

How does Paul's narrative biography relate to v. 6?

v. 7—four participles expanding what it means to _____:

1. _____; 2. _____; 3. _____; 4. _____

?against errorists, how?

v. 8—"philosophy" ≠

Paul means ? _____

“according to” phrases): (        ) _____

(        ) _____

(        ) _____
